

Services

Clothing Vouchers

In 1999, VIP developed a partnership with St. Vincent de Paul to establish a voucher program to be utilized by probationers in need of clothing and/or small household appliances.

Optometric Services

The Lions Club Optometric Vision Clinic, a program offered through the San Diego Lions Club, provides low cost optometric services to probationers. They provide eye exams, glasses, glaucoma screening and consulting services for other visual problems.

Scholarships

VIP offers scholarships up to $1,000 per student, per school year, to probationers who are in compliance with their probation conditions, have completed or are actively attempting to complete restitution payments, demonstrate ambition and drive to further their education or obtain vocational skills that promote self-sufficiency.

Emergency Funds

VIP provides funds to probation families for emergency needs which include, but are not limited to, food, clothing, temporary housing assistance, dental, optometric and medical services, furniture, vocational materials, and GED exam fees.

Bus Passes

Probationers who are compliant with their conditions of probation, but are unable to afford transportation to school, work, to secure employment, or attend counseling are provided bus passes.

Raising funds to help the County of San Diego Probation Department give a hand-up and not a hand-out to youth and families striving to take accountability for their actions.

People who are willing to turn their lives around receive goods and services which helps lead them from a life of crime, and assists them in becoming productive members of our society.

VIP's Background

Volunteers In Probation (VIP), Inc. is a nonprofit, charitable, tax-exempt organization that was established and incorporated in the State of California over 30 years ago. It is administered by a board of directors, consisting of volunteers from the community and Probation staff.

The organization's purpose is to assist Probation staff by providing funds for the special needs of the department's clientele when such needs are not provided by public funds or other available community resources.

VIP's mission is to provide assistance to probationers, at-risk youth and their families through community partnerships and fundraising.
